

Discuss these questions with your group.

What do you notice about the different layers of the soil density column picture?

Does your soil sample from the shake jar test resemble this picture?

Why is gravel at the bottom and the organic matter at the top?

Color code your shake jar test handout using the diagram to the right (30R).

